The Business is a successful professional services and project assurance company, providing consultancy services to clients and partners within government, not for profit and private sectors throughout Australia.

The company (and its consultants) enjoys an envious reputation, and are commonly asked for by name by a growing number of Queensland and NSW's largest programs and projects, in addition to some of the most senior public service officials.

In recent years the company has excelled in the delivery of assurance services for the government sector and is clearly seen as the Queensland industry leader for the delivery assurance reviews and services. The company leverages from this reputation and delivers assorted consulting services across the portfolio management, portfolio maturity, project management and executive advisory services.

The company is poised to grow exponentially, with the owner looking to invest in the company through a business development manager and further capital investment. To date, the company has not actively promoted itself nor has the company aggressively sought greater market share.

The company has well defined internal processes, 'digitalised' business management systems and an ever increasing revenue stream through repeat client, recommendations and performance. The business structure allows for a quickly "scalable" business to meet future demand.
